

Turtles: Vocabulary Practice (1)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 A turtle's ..... is about 100 years, so they live longer than humans do.

- A appetite                      B lifespan                      C diet                      D realm

Q2 There are seven continents on Earth, and turtles ..... every one except Antarctica.

- A inhabit                      B gorge                      C engulf                      D unify

Q3 A turtle's ..... is a complex structure and consists of more than 50 bones. It sits on its back and acts as a shield or hiding place when necessary.

- A tooth                      B head                      C tail                      D shell

Q4 Turtles are part of the ..... class. They are cold-blooded and have scaly skin.

- A reptile                      B mammal                      C bird                      D marsupial

Q5 Turtles do not have visible ..... However, they are not deaf because these are found on the interior portion of their heads.

- A eyes                      B legs                      C termites                      D ears

Q6 Some turtles live in oceans, but others live in ..... water around the world.

- A steamy                      B frozen                      C clean                      D fresh

Q7 In North America, tortoises spend most of their lives on land. However, turtles are a different type of reptile because they require water in order to .....

- A survive                      B prevent                      C save                      D capture

Q8 Turtles spend most of their lives in the water; however, all turtles lay their eggs on land. Female turtles find warm, safe places and dig ..... for their eggs.

- A pouches                      B cribs                      C baskets                      D nests

Q9 There are many different turtle ..... found all over the world. The American Box Turtle and the Leatherback Sea Turtle are examples.

- A fortunes                      B ports                      C species                      D mammals

Q10 Turtles are very good swimmers and have ..... feet. However, tortoises don't share this characteristic because they are land animals.

- A webbed                      B beaded                      C budded                      D booted

ANSWERS: Turtles: Vocabulary Practice (1)

Q1 A turtle's ..... is about 100 years, so they live longer than humans do.

B lifespan

Q2 There are seven continents on Earth, and turtles ..... every one except Antarctica.

A inhabit

Q3 A turtle's ..... is a complex structure and consists of more than 50 bones. It sits on its back and acts as a shield or hiding place when necessary.

D shell

Q4 Turtles are part of the ..... class. They are cold-blooded and have scaly skin.

A reptile

Q5 Turtles do not have visible ..... However, they are not deaf because these are found on the interior portion of their heads.

D ears

Q6 Some turtles live in oceans, but others live in ..... water around the world.

D fresh

Q7 In North America, tortoises spend most of their lives on land. However, turtles are a different type of reptile because they require water in order to .....

A survive

Q8 Turtles spend most of their lives in the water; however, all turtles lay their eggs on land. Female turtles find warm, safe places and dig ..... for their eggs.

D nests

Q9 There are many different turtle ..... found all over the world. The American Box Turtle and the Leatherback Sea Turtle are examples.

C species

Q10 Turtles are very good swimmers and have ..... feet. However, tortoises don't share this characteristic because they are land animals.

A webbed