

Vocabulary Practice: War-related Terms (3)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 A temporary truce that involves an agreement to stop firing is called a-fire.

- A stop B end C cease D remove

Q2 Diseases meant for use against the enemy during wartime are known as weapons.

- A nuclear B artillery C gas D biological

Q3 Weapons that employ incapacitating or lethal poisons/chemicals are called weapons.

- A chemical B nutritional C biological D naval

Q4 Weapons that are built to release nuclear energy are known as weapons.

- A gas B nuclear C chemical D poison

Q5 Land armies, for hundreds of years, have extensively used in battle. They are accurate, quick to reload, and the bullets released from them can travel several miles.

- A swords B knives C crossbows D guns

Q6 An explosive device that detonates by impact, signal, timer, or by other means is called a

- A bullet B arrow C sword D bomb

Q7 The branch of military concerned with land warfare is the

- A Army B Navy C Airforce D Policemen

Q8 The branch of the American military concerned with warfare at sea is called the

- A Army B Air Force C Amphibians D Navy

Q9 The branch of the American military that focuses on warfare and defense in the air is called the

- A Navy B Bomb Squad C Flying Brigade D Air Force

Q10 People have used against each other since the beginning of time. They have been used to gain territory, money, power as well as many other reasons.

- A boxes B orphans C manufacturing D weapons

ANSWERS: Vocabulary Practice: War-related Terms (3)

Q1 A temporary truce that involves an agreement to stop firing is called a-fire.

C cease

Q2 Diseases meant for use against the enemy during wartime are known as weapons.

D biological

Q3 Weapons that employ incapacitating or lethal poisons/chemicals are called weapons.

A chemical

Q4 Weapons that are built to release nuclear energy are known as weapons.

B nuclear

Q5 Land armies, for hundreds of years, have extensively used in battle. They are accurate, quick to reload, and the bullets released from them can travel several miles.

D guns

Q6 An explosive device that detonates by impact, signal, timer, or by other means is called a

D bomb

Q7 The branch of military concerned with land warfare is the

A Army

Q8 The branch of the American military concerned with warfare at sea is called the

D Navy

Q9 The branch of the American military that focuses on warfare and defense in the air is called the

D Air Force

Q10 People have used against each other since the beginning of time. They have been used to gain territory, money, power as well as many other reasons.

D weapons