

Vocabulary Practice: War-related Terms (4)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 The Corps is composed of amphibious units that are often first on the battlefield and are directed by the United States Navy. They are one of the specialized branches of military service in America.

- A Navy B Squadron C Tank D Marine

Q2 The military rank structure, that determines authority, is called the of command. Each person in the order is subordinate to the one above him or her and orders come from the top down.

- A ball B chain C spike D arrow

Q3 A camp for prisoners, civilians, or enemy detainees that keeps its populace under harsh and extreme conditions is called a camp.

- A civil B concentration C category D density

Q4 When the military of a country overthrows the governing body of its own country, this is called a military

- A corps B cancer C switch D coup

Q5 Members of a group who oppose the controlling government by force are called

- A white rabbits B rebels C small armies D bandoliers

Q6 The eradication of a specific racial or cultural group by another faction is called

- A irradiation B irrigation C patricide D genocide

Q7 Mobile warfare used against a large group by a small group is called warfare.

- A sneaky B running C mobility D guerrilla

Q8 A military armored vehicle that runs on tracks and possesses artillery capabilities is called a

- A fighter jet B tanker C pontoon D tank

Q9 An exploding rocket used in war is called a

- A Gatling gun B bomber C front loader D missile

Q10 A gun that fires very rapidly and continuously is called a gun.

- A machine B arrow C warhead D bullet

ANSWERS: Vocabulary Practice: War-related Terms (4)

Q1 The Corps is composed of amphibious units that are often first on the battlefield and are directed by the United States Navy. They are one of the specialized branches of military service in America.

D Marine

Q2 The military rank structure, that determines authority, is called the of command. Each person in the order is subordinate to the one above him or her and orders come from the top down.

B chain

Q3 A camp for prisoners, civilians, or enemy detainees that keeps its populace under harsh and extreme conditions is called a camp.

B concentration

Q4 When the military of a country overthrows the governing body of its own country, this is called a military

D coup

Q5 Members of a group who oppose the controlling government by force are called

B rebels

Q6 The eradication of a specific racial or cultural group by another faction is called

D genocide

Q7 Mobile warfare used against a large group by a small group is called warfare.

D guerrilla

Q8 A military armored vehicle that runs on tracks and possesses artillery capabilities is called a

D tank

Q9 An exploding rocket used in war is called a

D missile

Q10 A gun that fires very rapidly and continuously is called a gun.

A machine