

'Took' Common Usages (1)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 He takes his mother. He looks and acts just like her.

- A along B over C after D onto

Q2 The big wrestler took the smaller guy, who hit the mat like a ton of bricks.

- A on B in C off D down

Q3 He took the DVD player in order to fix it. He disassembled it because he hates throwing electronics in the garbage.

- A in B apart C upon D below

Q4 The newspaper took the comments they made about the politician last week. They issued a retraction in today's paper.

- A over B back C under D right

Q5 Let's take all of the Christmas decorations. It's already January 15th.

- A through B over C on D down

Q6 I saw the reporter taking some notes during the meeting. I wonder what parts she's going to include in her article tomorrow?

- A out B up C down D in

Q7 Woman: This skirt is a little big. Can you take it around the waist? Seamstress: No problem. You can pick it up tomorrow.

- A out B off C in D down

Q8 I don't take to harsh and abusive language in this house. You'd better be proper and polite, or I'll have to ask you to leave immediately.

- A answer B correctly C kindly D through

Q9 My husband always takes me for He doesn't appreciate all of the work that I do at home. He never thanks me for anything.

- A ignorance B furniture C nothing D granted

Q10 You have to take his personal problems account before you make your decision. He's a great employee, but he's gone through some rough patches over the past six months. Give him another chance to prove himself.

- A in B into C off D on

ANSWERS: 'Took' Common Usages (1)

Q1 He takes his mother. He looks and acts just like her.

C after

Q2 The big wrestler took the smaller guy, who hit the mat like a ton of bricks.

D down

Q3 He took the DVD player in order to fix it. He disassembled it because he hates throwing electronics in the garbage.

B apart

Q4 The newspaper took the comments they made about the politician last week. They issued a retraction in today's paper.

B back

Q5 Let's take all of the Christmas decorations. It's already January 15th.

D down

Q6 I saw the reporter taking some notes during the meeting. I wonder what parts she's going to include in her article tomorrow?

C down

Q7 Woman: This skirt is a little big. Can you take it around the waist? Seamstress: No problem. You can pick it up tomorrow.

C in

Q8 I don't take to harsh and abusive language in this house. You'd better be proper and polite, or I'll have to ask you to leave immediately.

C kindly

Q9 My husband always takes me for He doesn't appreciate all of the work that I do at home. He never thanks me for anything.

D granted

Q10 You have to take his personal problems account before you make your decision. He's a great employee, but he's gone through some rough patches over the past six months. Give him another chance to prove himself.

B into