

Noun and Verb Opposites (1)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 I used to live in the ..... of the city. It was too busy for me, so I moved to the outskirts.

- A top                                      B fields                                      C center                                      D outfield

Q2 Parents, who are the adults, should be in control of the household. .... should not be in control.

- A Animals                                      B Children                                      C Fruit                                      D Plants

Q3 Don't open this door because you'll let all the cold air into the room. If you have to leave the room, you must quickly ..... the door behind you.

- A down                                      B lift                                      C push                                      D close

Q4 I came to your house four hours ago. However, now, I have to ..... home.

- A buy                                      B go                                      C leave                                      D wax

Q5 I want to watch a comedy tonight. I don't want to watch a ..... that will make me sad.

- A novel                                      B band                                      C juggler                                      D drama

Q6 I go to work during the day. However, I spend my ..... with my family.

- A items                                      B lightning                                      C cameras                                      D evenings

Q7 A good friend does things that make you want to laugh. A bad friend does things that make you want to .....

- A limp                                      B run                                      C work                                      D cry

Q8 The hurricane ..... our house. But, we built a new one this year. I'm so happy now.

- A rose                                      B hurt                                      C planted                                      D destroyed

Q9 My son is 12-years-old, but, my ....., is only two-years-old.

- A parent                                      B door                                      C adult                                      D daughter

Q10 Samuel ..... last year. However, his memory lives on in our hearts.

- A cleared                                      B died                                      C bought                                      D flew

ANSWERS: Noun and Verb Opposites (1)

Q1 I used to live in the ..... of the city. It was too busy for me, so I moved to the outskirts.

C center

Q2 Parents, who are the adults, should be in control of the household. .... should not be in control.

B Children

Q3 Don't open this door because you'll let all the cold air into the room. If you have to leave the room, you must quickly ..... the door behind you.

D close

Q4 I came to your house four hours ago. However, now, I have to ..... home.

B go

Q5 I want to watch a comedy tonight. I don't want to watch a ..... that will make me sad.

D drama

Q6 I go to work during the day. However, I spend my ..... with my family.

D evenings

Q7 A good friend does things that make you want to laugh. A bad friend does things that make you want to .....

D cry

Q8 The hurricane ..... our house. But, we built a new one this year. I'm so happy now.

D destroyed

Q9 My son is 12-years-old, but, my ....., is only two-years-old.

D daughter

Q10 Samuel ..... last year. However, his memory lives on in our hearts.

B died