

Atlantis, Bahamas

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 At the Atlantis Resort in the Bahamas, a group of people are finding ..... ways to stop coral reef destruction.

- A renovated                      B innovative                      C restored                      D innocuous

Q2 Tourists who want to help protect the dolphins, sea turtles and sharks are asked to contribute money to a ..... conservation group.

- A bonafide                      B bonfire                      C bouffant                      D bounteous

Q3 The focus of The Blue Project is to protect the ..... of tropical marine ecosystems.

- A interest                      B interior                      C integrity                      D intent

Q4 When women buy jewelry made of coral or shells, it creates a market for ..... of these items from the ocean.

- A overwhelming                      B overexploitation                      C outage                      D outsourcing

Q5 A replica of the lost city of Atlantis, with its many treasures, displays examples of a ..... existence of people who lived in harmony with the sea.

- A prosperous                      B pursuant                      C purposeful                      D prognostic

Q6 Atlanteans were remarkable scientists with a wealth of ....., as evidenced by the creation of a georesonant clock. This remarkable instrument was used to record sensitive measurements and interpret data.

- A inventiveness                      B impressiveness                      C instruction                      D impressions

Q7 A remarkable Grouper exhibit can be viewed as tourists walk through the Atlantis underground tunnel. The ..... Grouper can continue to grow to 8 feet or more, depending on the amount of space in its environment.

- A reprehensible                      B habitable                      C Goliath                      D habitual

Q8 As tourists watched the steady stream of clownfish, sea urchins, moray eels, and jellyfish parade by the aquarium window, in their imagination, they could picture a once busy ..... with Atlanteans shopping in the markets.

- A freeway                      B byway                      C fishmonger                      D boulevard

Q9 Our guide told us that, contrary to popular belief, piranhas do not ..... attack people and other animals. Instead, they prefer to attack weak or injured animals.

- A mindlessly                      B mindfully                      C massively                      D manfully

Q10 My favorite exhibit was the Submarine Room. The guide said it was from there that the Atlanteans ..... a final effort to save their land before it sunk into the ocean.

- A heaved                      B forced                      C launched                      D escaped

ANSWERS: Atlantis, Bahamas

Q1 At the Atlantis Resort in the Bahamas, a group of people are finding ..... ways to stop coral reef destruction.

B innovative

Q2 Tourists who want to help protect the dolphins, sea turtles and sharks are asked to contribute money to a ..... conservation group.

A bonafide

Q3 The focus of The Blue Project is to protect the ..... of tropical marine ecosystems.

C integrity

Q4 When women buy jewelry made of coral or shells, it creates a market for ..... of these items from the ocean.

B overexploitation

Q5 A replica of the lost city of Atlantis, with its many treasures, displays examples of a ..... existence of people who lived in harmony with the sea.

A prosperous

Q6 Atlanteans were remarkable scientists with a wealth of ....., as evidenced by the creation of a georesonant clock. This remarkable instrument was used to record sensitive measurements and interpret data.

A inventiveness

Q7 A remarkable Grouper exhibit can be viewed as tourists walk through the Atlantis underground tunnel. The ..... Grouper can continue to grow to 8 feet or more, depending on the amount of space in its environment.

C Goliath

Q8 As tourists watched the steady stream of clownfish, sea urchins, moray eels, and jellyfish parade by the aquarium window, in their imagination, they could picture a once busy ..... with Atlanteans shopping in the markets.

D boulevard

Q9 Our guide told us that, contrary to popular belief, piranhas do not ..... attack people and other animals. Instead, they prefer to attack weak or injured animals.

A mindlessly

Q10 My favorite exhibit was the Submarine Room. The guide said it was from there that the Atlanteans ..... a final effort to save their land before it sunk into the ocean.

C launched