

Robert Frost

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 American poet, Robert Frost who ..... wrote about the simple beauty in nature as well as his observations of life, thought of himself as a "poet of isolation."

- A consistently      B consciously      C contradictory      D confusedly

Q2 As a child he attended school ..... due to chronic stomach pains. However, his Scottish mother was a former teacher and schooled him at home.

- A inevitable      B infrequently      C inferior      D intrinsic

Q3 His father died when Frost was a young boy. The family moved from San Francisco to Lawrence Massachusetts, and lived with his ..... grandfather, William Prescott Frost, who insisted Frost attend public school.

- A patriot      B pretend      C poignant      D paternal

Q4 Frost attended Dartmouth College for a few months, then held a ..... of jobs over the next ten years, eventually teaching Latin at his mother's school.

- A myriad      B mystery      C myotonic      D myositis

Q5 In 1894, the New York Independent newspaper published "My Butterfly," which encouraged Frost to continue his ..... writing of poems.

- A prolific      B prolately      C proliferate      D prelatice

Q6 Perhaps receiving too many rejection slips was the ..... for Frost deciding to sell his farm and move the family to England.

- A character      B catalyst      C crystal      D conclusion

Q7 In England, his work was ..... accepted. Frost published his collect of poems, "A Boy's Will," followed soon after by "North Boston," the exposure earning him international praise.

- A energetically      B endosmotically      C enthusiastically      D extemporaneously

Q8 Frost continued to write his poems with thought-..... themes. The blank verse poems often dealt with his personal anguish, including the mental breakdowns of two daughters and suicide of his son.

- A provisional      B provoking      C premeditate      D premedically

Q9 After studying the works of such English poets as Rupert Brooke, Frost decided to return to the U.S. ...., the Atlantic Monthly editor asked for some of his work, when previously he had rejected all of Frost's submissions, considering them unsuitable for its reading audience.

- A Inevitable      B Irritable      C Irksome      D Ironically

Q10 Frost received numerous awards and honors. In fact, President Eisenhower appointed him to be a ..... in poetry for the Library of Congress. Robert Frost was considered to be a complex man who liked his privacy, yet sought out audiences to give lectures and read his reflections on the world.

A constable

B consumable

C consultant

D constraint

Get this PDF from english.best/shop

ANSWERS: Robert Frost

Q1 American poet, Robert Frost who ..... wrote about the simple beauty in nature as well as his observations of life, thought of himself as a "poet of isolation."

B consciously

Q2 As a child he attended school ..... due to chronic stomach pains. However, his Scottish mother was a former teacher and schooled him at home.

B infrequently

Q3 His father died when Frost was a young boy. The family moved from San Francisco to Lawrence Massachusetts, and lived with his ..... grandfather, William Prescott Frost, who insisted Frost attend public school.

D paternal

Q4 Frost attended Dartmouth College for a few months, then held a ..... of jobs over the next ten years, eventually teaching Latin at his mother's school.

A myriad

Q5 In 1894, the New York Independent newspaper published "My Butterfly," which encouraged Frost to continue his ..... writing of poems.

A prolific

Q6 Perhaps receiving too many rejection slips was the ..... for Frost deciding to sell his farm and move the family to England.

B catalyst

Q7 In England, his work was ..... accepted. Frost published his collect of poems, "A Boy's Will," followed soon after by "North Boston," the exposure earning him international praise.

C enthusiastically

Q8 Frost continued to write his poems with thought-..... themes. The blank verse poems often dealt with his personal anguish, including the mental breakdowns of two daughters and suicide of his son.

B provoking

Q9 After studying the works of such English poets as Rupert Brooke, Frost decided to return to the U.S. ...., the Atlantic Monthly editor asked for some of his work, when previously he had rejected all of Frost's submissions, considering them unsuitable for its reading audience.

D Ironically

Q10 Frost received numerous awards and honors. In fact, President Eisenhower appointed him to be a ..... in poetry for the Library of Congress. Robert Frost was considered to be a complex man who liked his privacy, yet sought out audiences to give lectures and read his reflections on the world.

C consultant