

Weather vocabulary test 5

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 The sport of gliding on ice with boots that have sharp, metal blades attached to their soles is called

- A skating B sledding C skiing D roller skating

Q2 The sport of sliding and jumping down snowy hills or slopes on long, narrow runners is called

- A skating B sledding C skiing D roller skating

Q3 In many countries around the world, the temperatures drop in the winter months, so residents wear clothing like sweaters, coats and scarves.

- A woven B warm C light D cool

Q4 Parents often make for their children in the winter. It's a drink that is served hot and tastes great because of its sweet, dark, key ingredient.

- A lemonade B hot chocolate C martinis D mulled wine

Q5 When it's a bit cold outside, people often say that it's

- A balmy B chilly C foggy D freezy

Q6 A(n) is a temporary or short-term period of below-average temperatures.

- A cold spell B Chinook C avalanche D weekend

Q7 When it's really cold outside and the temperatures are well below zero, people often say that it's cold.

- A scorching B icing C freezing D snowing

Q8 In the fall, some people harvest plump, juicy grapes in order to make an alcoholic beverage called

- A cider B beer C wine D lemonade

Q9 When the temperatures are really high and it's very hot outside, people often say that it's

- A brewing B scorching C smoking D sunning

Q10 When heavy rain, thunder and lightning appear, people often say that the weather is

- A stormy B balmy C turvy D windy

ANSWERS: Weather vocabulary test 5

Q1 The sport of gliding on ice with boots that have sharp, metal blades attached to their soles is called

A skating

Q2 The sport of sliding and jumping down snowy hills or slopes on long, narrow runners is called

C skiing

Q3 In many countries around the world, the temperatures drop in the winter months, so residents wear clothing like sweaters, coats and scarves.

B warm

Q4 Parents often make for their children in the winter. It's a drink that is served hot and tastes great because of its sweet, dark, key ingredient.

B hot chocolate

Q5 When it's a bit cold outside, people often say that it's

B chilly

Q6 A(n) is a temporary or short-term period of below-average temperatures.

A cold spell

Q7 When it's really cold outside and the temperatures are well below zero, people often say that it's cold.

C freezing

Q8 In the fall, some people harvest plump, juicy grapes in order to make an alcoholic beverage called

C wine

Q9 When the temperatures are really high and it's very hot outside, people often say that it's

B scorching

Q10 When heavy rain, thunder and lightning appear, people often say that the weather is

A stormy