

Weather vocabulary test 6

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 Sometimes, an arch or arc of color forms after a rain shower. Commonly known as a rain....., it is beautiful because it reveals different bands of colors and can be seen for miles.

- A prism                      B bow                      C screen                      D stripes

Q2 In the fall, children head ..... to school after a long, relaxing summer vacation.

- A back                      B on                      C toward                      D through

Q3 In North America, the coldest season of the year is typically the .....

- A autumn                      B fall                      C winter                      D summer

Q4 In North America, the warmest season of the year is usually the .....

- A spring                      B summer                      C fall                      D winter

Q5 Spring ..... help to moisten or dampen the earth so that flowers and other plants can grow after a long, cold winter.

- A showers                      B seasons                      C insects                      D winds

Q6 Some animals get ready for winter in the fall by collecting food or building shelter. A common animal that collects acorns and other nuts in order to build up a good winter supply of food is a .....

- A rabbit                      B squirrel                      C bear                      D fox

Q7 In the hot summer months, some people ..... cool by eating delicious, juicy watermelons or other cool fruits.

- A are                      B make                      C keep                      D do

Q8 In the fall, the leaves of many trees ..... color. Beautiful hues of yellow, brown, red and orange can be admired before they fall to the ground in the early winter months.

- A grow                      B change                      C take                      D show

Q9 Pumpkins are usually harvested in the fall. Many people carve them into Jack O'Lanterns and display them in front of their houses just in time for .....

- A Thanksgiving                      B Christmas                      C Halloween                      D Easter

Q10 ..... weather refers to gentle, soothing or mild temperatures, not extreme or harsh weather conditions.

- A Nippy                      B Balmy                      C Frosty                      D Windy

ANSWERS: Weather vocabulary test 6

Q1 Sometimes, an arch or arc of color forms after a rain shower. Commonly known as a rain....., it is beautiful because it reveals different bands of colors and can be seen for miles.

B bow

Q2 In the fall, children head ..... to school after a long, relaxing summer vacation.

A back

Q3 In North America, the coldest season of the year is typically the .....

C winter

Q4 In North America, the warmest season of the year is usually the .....

B summer

Q5 Spring ..... help to moisten or dampen the earth so that flowers and other plants can grow after a long, cold winter.

A showers

Q6 Some animals get ready for winter in the fall by collecting food or building shelter. A common animal that collects acorns and other nuts in order to build up a good winter supply of food is a .....

B squirrel

Q7 In the hot summer months, some people ..... cool by eating delicious, juicy watermelons or other cool fruits.

C keep

Q8 In the fall, the leaves of many trees ..... color. Beautiful hues of yellow, brown, red and orange can be admired before they fall to the ground in the early winter months.

B change

Q9 Pumpkins are usually harvested in the fall. Many people carve them into Jack O'Lanterns and display them in front of their houses just in time for .....

C Halloween

Q10 ..... weather refers to gentle, soothing or mild temperatures, not extreme or harsh weather conditions.

B Balmy