

US Government Questions Test (2)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 The term is a change or modification applied to a practice or law that already exists.

- A convention B amendment C authority

Q2 When a population votes on a certain subject, the larger number of people who agree, and must equal more than one-half of the voting population, is called the

- A minority B convention C majority

Q3 was a law that outlawed the production, sale, use and/or transport of alcohol for consumption purposes in the United States. By 1933, the law was abolished.

- A Constitution B National C Prohibition

Q4 A written, legal record or document requesting assistance, change or modifications within a government system already in place is called a

- A constitution B petition C convention

Q5 Stemming from John Locke's ideas, innate rights, such as life, property and liberty, are known as rights in the U.S.

- A ethical B normal C natural

Q6 Early governments in the US established a, This is a written outline that verifies the rights of the people within a unified, democratic government.

- A convention B constitution C pamphlet

Q7 A is an agreement or understanding between two regions, states or countries that defines trade and other matters identified by both parties.

- A delegate B executive C treaty

Q8 In the US, the division of government that deals with law, courts and justice is the system or branch.

- A financial B judicial C popular

Q9 Sometimes bills are vetoed. However, at other times, a bill or amendment is approved or

- A ratified B united C imported

Q10 A person who is not a member of a police or fire-fighting department or enlisted in the military is known as a

- A civilian B officer C senator

ANSWERS: US Government Questions Test (2)

Q1 The term is a change or modification applied to a practice or law that already exists.

B amendment

Q2 When a population votes on a certain subject, the larger number of people who agree, and must equal more than one-half of the voting population, is called the

C majority

Q3 was a law that outlawed the production, sale, use and/or transport of alcohol for consumption purposes in the United States. By 1933, the law was abolished.

C Prohibition

Q4 A written, legal record or document requesting assistance, change or modifications within a government system already in place is called a

B petition

Q5 Stemming from John Locke's ideas, innate rights, such as life, property and liberty, are known as rights in the U.S.

C natural

Q6 Early governments in the US established a, This is a written outline that verifies the rights of the people within a unified, democratic government.

B constitution

Q7 A is an agreement or understanding between two regions, states or countries that defines trade and other matters identified by both parties.

C treaty

Q8 In the US, the division of government that deals with law, courts and justice is the system or branch.

B judicial

Q9 Sometimes bills are vetoed. However, at other times, a bill or amendment is approved or

A ratified

Q10 A person who is not a member of a police or fire-fighting department or enlisted in the military is known as a

A civilian