

US Government Questions Test (3)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 Congress has a number of lawmaking responsibilities and is known as the branch of the US government.

- A conventional B legislative C Supreme Court

Q2 A United States president has the authority to appoint judges to the Court and ambassadors to foreign countries.

- A trial B Supreme C Congress

Q3 Every four years, certain people run for office. A person who runs for the presidential office position in a national campaign is called a presidential

- A candidate B officer C lawyer

Q4 Among other responsibilities, Congress has the authority to collect and pass laws regarding the income tax structure.

- A amendments B taxes C opinions

Q5 When a public official is accused and then charged with wrongful or unlawful conduct, the process is known as an

- A resignation B depression C impeachment

Q6 A person who is born in a certain country is entitled to specific rights, benefits and duties and considered a of that particular country.

- A resident B citizen C lawyer

Q7 When a person is charged with a criminal act, the judicial system can either convict or the person of the charges.

- A acquit B converse C resign

Q8 Within the US government, the sector that operates all facets concerning veterans' services is the department.

- A homeland security B labor C veterans affairs

Q9 Within the US government, the sector that supervises and directs minimum wage and employee standards that exist in the current system is the department.

- A justice B labor C interior

Q10 A division of the governmental system that presides over health and human services within the boundaries of America is the department of

- A interior
B education
C health and human services

ANSWERS: US Government Questions Test (3)

Q1 Congress has a number of lawmaking responsibilities and is known as the branch of the US government.

B legislative

Q2 A United States president has the authority to appoint judges to the Court and ambassadors to foreign countries.

B Supreme

Q3 Every four years, certain people run for office. A person who runs for the presidential office position in a national campaign is called a presidential

A candidate

Q4 Among other responsibilities, Congress has the authority to collect and pass laws regarding the income tax structure.

B taxes

Q5 When a public official is accused and then charged with wrongful or unlawful conduct, the process is known as an

C impeachment

Q6 A person who is born in a certain country is entitled to specific rights, benefits and duties and considered a of that particular country.

B citizen

Q7 When a person is charged with a criminal act, the judicial system can either convict or the person of the charges.

A acquit

Q8 Within the US government, the sector that operates all facets concerning veterans' services is the department.

C veterans affairs

Q9 Within the US government, the sector that supervises and directs minimum wage and employee standards that exist in the current system is the department.

B labor

Q10 A division of the governmental system that presides over health and human services within the boundaries of America is the department of

C health and human services